

Steven Noah Monedero

Passionate software developer with a strong technical foundation. Driven to develop innovative and efficient solutions for companies while continuously striving to enhance my skills.

15 Somerside Manor SW
Calgary, Alberta
(587) 700 8577
noahmonedero5@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Southern Alberta Institute of Technology(SAIT), Calgary,AB — Software Development

January 2024 - Expected Graduation January 2025

EXPERIENCE

A1 Chesney, Calgary, AB — Warehouse Manager

October 2022 - August 2023

Independently acquired proficiency in warehouse operations through self-directed learning and on-the-job experience.

Collaborated with colleagues across various departments to implement a strategic organization that benefits both the company and personal efficiency.

Planned and customized an effective inventory tracking system that significantly minimized stock discrepancy and improved inventory accuracy.

A1 Chesney, Calgary, AB — Apprentice Installer

July 2021 - October 2022

Leveraged effective planning and time management to strategize a successful approach for completing the job within the desired timeframe while exceeding client expectations.

Established positive and productive relationships with diverse team leaders by demonstrating strong communication and interpersonal skills, contributing to successful project outcomes.

Provided exemplary customer service by fulfilling client requests while also offering informed suggestions for optimal solutions.

SKILLS

Proficient in computer programming with a strong commitment to continuous improvement.

Experienced in working with Python, HTML, CSS, and Javascript.

Leverage strong interpersonal skills to build positive relationships with team members and clients.

Excellent time management, prioritization and attention to details.

Readily adapt to new concepts and environments.

LANGUAGES

English and Tagalog